Rose Ayling Ellis makes history as she wins Strictly Come Dancing 2021 with Giovanni

STRICTLY COME DANCING star Rose Ayling-Ellis made history after she and Giovanni Pernice crowned the winners of the 2021 series.

In this year's final of Strictly Come Dancing, Rose Ayling-Ellis and John Whaite battled it out in the final in the hopes of lifting the Glitterball Trophy. Both couples received praise from the judges for their stunning routines, but only one could be the winner. At the end of the programme, Rose Ayling-Ellis was crowned the winner of this year's Strictly Come Dancing during an emotional final.

Rose, who made Strictly history earlier this year as the show's first deaf contestant, lifted the trophy after both she and John performed three routines.

Reacting to their win, Giovanni said: "Incredible. I have to say thank you to this beautiful young lady who made all my dreams come true.

Rose told him: "I just want to say you're so amazing, you pushed me to believe in myself more than I believed in myself.

"You're an incredible teacher and a wonderful friend and we have gone through a lot, and I just want you to know you've always got a piece of my heart."

Rose broken down barriers and promoted a can-do approach which is a character of deaf people. Breaking barriers breaking through for diversity, a true champion.

County News

Get Outside in Somerset is helping our community to get outdoors and move in more ways that suit you. Founded by Somerset Activity and Sports Partnership in partnership with Somerset County Council, Community Council for Somerset, Spark Somerset, and Somerset Wildlife Trust, we are here to empower people to get outside more often and enjoy our beautiful county.

From spending time with family and having fun with friends in the garden, to enjoying the scenery and embracing the weather on our rolling hills, we are all about simple ways to get outside in Somerset.

Look at their website for tips, advice, and guidance on how to keep or get active outdoors.
